

The wide paper mat

A fictional shared-place story · read scenes in order · result not yet known

SCENE 1

Luma spread one wide paper mat on a pretend play table. Luma wanted space for a toy road.

SCENE 2

Jay brought three large paper puppets and wanted the same mat for a show. Both wanted to use it now.

SCENE 3

Luma asked, "Could we each use one side?" Jay said, "I hear you. My puppets need more room. Could we try one short turn each instead?"

SCENE 4

Luma said, "Let's try turns and ask if both of us got a chance." They agreed to try. The story ends before the turns happen; it does not say whether the plan worked.
