

Fresh Check A · Paper Cove

Invented neutral sources; read learner prompts one short part at a time.

SOURCE 1 · SPOT ONE

SOURCE 2 · SPOT TWO

KEY: square = table; circles = boxes; rectangle = screen.

SOURCE 1 · SPOT ONE

“Paper Cove, Spot One: a square table and one round box with two star marks are shown. A screen hides the area to the right. This is an invented drawing.”

SOURCE 2 · SPOT TWO

“Paper Cove, Spot Two: the square table and two round boxes are shown. The first has two star marks; the second has one moon mark. This is another view of the same invented scene.”

SOURCE 3 · TWO OWN REASONS

“Rae says: The table matters to me for laying paper cards. Sami says: The round box matters to me for storing paper cards. Each gives their own reason.”

SOURCE 4 · PAZ'S REQUEST

“Keep paper pages on the table. Ask me before moving boxes or the screen. This is a request, not a report of use.”
