

One try at a time · E / F

Fictional accounts, not observed school events or a controlled comparison. Do not fill source gaps.

E · JORI'S ONE TRY ACCOUNT

“During one paper try, I looked at the side-by-side layout. I pointed to the board-page when asked. I have not reported anyone else’s use.”

F · MELL'S ONE TRY ACCOUNT

“During one paper try, I looked at the stacked layout. I asked what the lower page meant. I have not reported later use or everyone’s view.”

Separate reader · layout · reported response

Exact original question / consent / later use: OPEN

LOG EACH ACCOUNT SEPARATELY

One point or question is one reported response. Different people and conditions do not show a better layout for everyone.